First Reading: Sir 35:12-14, 16-18

The book of Sirach was written by a wise teacher who lived 200 years before Christ. It is a loose collection of thoughts on various concerns in the life of a believer. In today's section, Sirach describes how God relates to us, and how we are to relate to God.

Second Reading: Tm 4:6-8, 16-18

Today we hear the concluding lines of the second letter to Timothy. This letter was written in Paul's name sometime after his death. Today's passage depicts Paul's thoughts while he was in prison, awaiting martyrdom.

DONUT SUNDAY!

Please join us for donuts in the main church vestibule after all the Masses next Sunday October 30th.

Dear Parishioners,

Well I didn't win the $5000. Or the $2000. Or even the $1000. But I'm still very happy for those who were the winners of our parish festival raffle so congratulations to them! The winner of the $2000 received our call on her birthday, so that was good timing. I believe all three winners were parishioners so that's even better. I'll have to put aside my wishes for another trip to Rome but I think they ran out of pasta there anyway during my last visit. The parish festival was a lot of fun! It was so good to see many parishioners & neighbors in the same place at the same time. And so many people volunteered their time & worked hard for this to happen again so successfully so please know how grateful I am to each one of you. I may not have been able to thank you personally but I saw you and thanked God for you in my heart. We had a bit of competition from the Indians and Ohio State games, but at least they were both winners. I'll let you know as soon as I know what the profit was but I'm happy that our biggest profit was from the opportunity to have fun together.

I mentioned last week that I wanted to let you know about a new opportunity for you to make your weekend contributions. Every registered parishioner receives envelopes in the mail every month for them to insert either cash or a check for their contribution at Mass (except for those who haven't used the envelopes for over a year & may prefer to just put their donation into the basket). If you wish to continue to use these envelopes, please feel free to do so. But here's another option for those of us who have become accustomed to paying our bills online. It's called WeShare which is an electronic giving tool, and many other parishes have been offering this option for years. Online Giving is an easy and convenient way to save time and support the church. Donating is simple, safe, and completely secure. With WeShare, you can set up a recurring weekly or monthly transaction using your checking, savings, or credit card account. You can decide how much to give to any collection and make changes any time, day or night. In next week's bulletin, I'll tell you how to use it. I've been using it myself and it's so easy and convenient. I don't have to worry about having cash to put in my envelopes, and I stopped using checks years ago as I like to pay by credit cards (where you can get points when you use your card). Starting next weekend, you'll find the WeShare logo on the homepage of our website to the right of the pictures (or below them if you're using a mobile phone). So many people have asked me for this option and we're now able to provide it free of charge to you. Call the rectory (216-661-1006) if you have any questions about this and we will be happy to answer them for you.

FESTIVAL NEWS

In spite of the Indians' championship games and the OSU Buckeyes' game, the Festival was a success. Fans cheered their teams to victory as they watched the games at the Festival. Thank you for supporting the Festival by attending and spending time with family, friends, and fellow parishioners. A lot of time and effort went into the preparations for the Festival, and we would like to thank everyone who volunteered at the Festival, whether working Friday or Saturday evening or setting up and cleaning up. There were many other aspects of the Festival -- putting together the raffle ticket packets, delivering the tickets that weren't picked up from church, and soliciting donations (bakery, too!) -- that took place weeks before the Festival. The parish and school staff, especially the maintenance crew, went beyond the call of duty to assist us in putting the Festival together. We would especially like to thank all the committee members who spent months planning and preparing for the Festival. A lot of time, effort, and manual labor went into the Festival, and we are grateful to everyone who took the time from their busy lives to put together this parish event. Without all of you, the Festival could not have taken place, so to each and every one of you, our heartfelt thanks.

AND THE WINNERS ARE—

$5,000 grand prize -- Tom Bennett
$2,000 second prize -- Ingrid Reynolds
$1,000 third prize -- John Zieminski

AND FINALLY...LAWN SIGNS—Thank you for helping to advertise the Festival with the blue and white lawn signs. We would appreciate it if you could return the metal posts so that they can be used for future parish purposes. THANK YOU!

TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

In announcing his decision to declare a holy Year of Mercy, Pope Francis said, "Dear brother and sisters, I have often thought about how the Church might make clear its mission of being a witness to mercy. Supporting the young churches throughout the world with your prayers and generous gifts is indeed a merciful witness of this mission. The collection today will help missionaries offer the poor of these areas practical help as they share the mercy of God. It will ensure the development of local diocese, and support the work of priests, religious and lay leaders who serve those on the margins and in most need. Extend your merciful witness to the whole world through your gift in today's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith!
